EN•COUN•TER CATHOLICISM allows adults from all faith backgrounds to explore the Catholic faith, its tenets, practices, history and meaning in the world today. Weekly topics are designed to enrich the faith of cradle Catholics, those raised without any faith tradition at all, converts, or those simply curious about Catholicism. Not a series, but a fast paced engaging hour on a different topic by a different presenter each week. Wednesdays, 6 to 7 p.m. in the Monsignor Ben Kasteel Hall of Christ the King Cathedral Family Activity Center, 4011 54th St, Come every week, once or twice a month, or whenever the Spirit leads you. Each session stands alone. www.ctkcathedral.org/encounter. Upcoming topics: May 13: "Saint Francis of Assisi: Birkenstock Tree Hugger or Model of Christ?" by Charlotte Amato. If you think of St. Francis as little more than a Birkenstock-clad hippie, a Peace Corps social worker or a tofu-eating tree-hugger, you do not have a good picture of this saint. The spirit of Franciscan spirituality is recognized as one of joy, gratitude and care for the poor, focused on the love and the goodness of God manifested in all creation.

LITTLE DISCIPLES, NOT LITTLE VENDORS – Tuesday, May 12 @ 1 p.m.

In this month's stewardship webinar, Father Andrew Kemberling author of Making Stewardship a Way of Life, will present a better way to teach children about raising money other than door-to-door or setting up tables outside the church. He'll present a Eucharistic-centered way for little disciples to bring their tithes and good deeds to the altar. All PCLs, teachers, parents, deacons and priests are encouraged to participate. Register online at <http://bit.ly/LittleDisciplesWebinar> for FREE as a courtesy of the Office of Stewardship and Development.
